iPhone typing sound.	Friend #1 (Sarah): Hey Kim! I know you studied abroad last year and was wondering if I could ask you some questions?
Text alert sound.
iPhone typing sound.	Friend #2 (Kim): Hey Sarah! Of course you can.
Text alert sound.
Spanish music plays softly when she mentions Spain.	Sarah: I'm thinking about studying at Centro in Seville, Spain.
Irish music plays softly when she mentions Dublin.	Sarah: Or maybe DBS in Dublin.
	Sarah: What do you know about those programs?
Text alert sound.
	Kim: No, I don't know about those.
Regal music plays softly when she says London.	Kim: I actually went to Edgehill in Osmirk, but all of the programs offer courses in English, so not speaking the language isn't an issue.
	Sarah: Really? I didn't know that! That definitely opens my mind more about Spain, but I heard it is more expensive.

	Kim: Don't worry about that! International students pay the same tuition they pay to Winthrop. There are even some scholarships that you can apply for.
	Sarah: That's so helpful. Maybe I'll even do my internship abroad.
	Kim: Great idea! If you need more information, visit the Mass Communication department's website or call 803-323-2121. Let me know where Winthrop takes you!
Spanish music softly fades in until the end.
